

In effect from 03 July 2015 -

Act XXX of 2012
on Hungarian national values and hungarikums¹

Pursuant to Article P) of the Fundamental Law of Hungary, and guided by the unity of the Hungarian nation, the National Assembly establishes the following:

a) the Hungarian national values (hereinafter: “national values”), including the hungarikums are unique values that should be preserved;

b) in order to reinforce the sense of togetherness, unity and national awareness we must collect and document our nation’s values, the documentation underlying the preservation of values must be safeguarded according to the rules of rigorous registry and searchability, and such values must be cultivated, protected and fostered;

c) our heritage, the millennium-old values of Hungarian culture, the intellectual and material works of the Hungarian people, the manmade and natural values shall be compiled in a comprehensive repository of values;

d) the safeguarding of our national values contributes to the formation and strengthening of our national self-awareness;

e) the portrayal and presentation of our national values on a wide Hungarian and foreign scale, as well as the achievement of recognition of our linguistic, intellectual, cultural, and economic performance and natural and manmade values, along with the reinforcement of our national image, are all of key importance.

The National Assembly declares that it considers the national values a part of the universal values which represent the dynamically growing repository of the past, present, and future of the Hungarian people and the bedrock of value- based national cooperation.

The repository of national values are enriched by the values of the peoples living together in Hungary, the ethnicities forming the Hungarian nation, as well as the individuals and communities living beyond the borders and throughout the world and considering themselves Hungarian.

For the purposes of the above, the National Assembly adopts the following law:²

PART I

CXL of 1997 on museum institutes, public library and general culture.

(4)⁵ In accordance with this law, no natural persons, legal entities or organisations without legal entity may be national values or hungarikums.

PART 2

IDENTIFICATION AND SYSTEMISATION OF NATIONAL VALUES

2. Identification of national values

Section 2.⁶ National values are values to be safeguarded. Local municipalities, county municipalities, local, county and national ethnic minority self-governments, competent state authorities, organisations of Hungarians abroad participating in the Hungarian Standing Conference (hereinafter: “MÁÉRT”) and natural and legal persons assigned thereby may be involved in the recording, regular updating and maintenance of their data. Any reference by this law to a county municipality or a county ethnic minority self-government shall respectively be understood to include the Budapest Municipality and Budapest ethnic minority self-governments.

3. Local and regional repositories of values

Section 3.⁷ (1) A local municipality may set up a local repository of values.

(2)⁸ A local municipality may establish a Committee for the Local Repository of Values, which shall – in accordance with the provisions of the legislation issued for the enforcement of this law – organise the identification of national values located in the area of the local municipality, create a local repository of values and send the same to the relevant Committee for the County Repository of Values for registration.

(3)⁹ The local municipalities of several neighbouring settlements may also establish a Committee for the Regional Repository of Values, which shall compile the regional repository of values and shall forward its data to the relevant Committees for the County Repository of Values.

(4)¹⁰ For the purpose of identifying local and regional values, establishing and maintaining a local and regional repository of values and forwarding the data thereof to the competent Committee for County Repository of Values, a local municipality may appoint an institution, or an organisational unit thereof, operated by the state, local municipal, church or non-governmental organisation or a public foundation responsible for identifying and maintaining national values, or a third-party organisation operating in local development or rural development (hereinafter collectively referred to as “local organisations”).

(5)¹¹ The local municipality in question shall inform the HB of creating the Committee for the Local or Regional Repository of Values and of assigning the same to fulfill the tasks referred to in Paragraph (4) within 30 days of the creation or appointment thereof.

4. County repository of values

⁵ Established by Act CCLII of 2013, Section 59. Effective as of: 15 March 2014.

⁶ Established by Act LXXX of 2015, Section 3. Effective as of 03 July 2015.

⁷ Established by Act CCL of 2013, Section 152. Effective as of 31 December 2013.

⁸ Established by Act LXXX of 2015, Section 4. Effective as of 03 July 2015.

¹⁰ Established by Act LXXX of 2015, Section 4. Effective as of 03 July 2015.

¹¹ Established by Act LXXX of 2015, Section 4. Effective as of 03 July 2015.

Section 4. (1) A county municipality may set up a county repository of values.

(2)¹² A county municipality may establish a Committee for the County Repository of Values, which shall – in accordance with the provisions of the legislation issued for the enforcement of this law – organise the identification of national values located in the area of the county, decides on the inclusion of national values in the county repository, create a county repository of values and send the same to the HB for registration.

(3)¹³ For the purpose of identifying county values, establishing and maintaining a county repository of values and forwarding the data thereof to the Hungarian Repository of Values, a county municipality may appoint an institution, or an organisational unit thereof, operated by the state, county municipal, church or non-governmental organisation or a public foundation responsible for identifying and maintaining national values (hereinafter collectively referred to as “county organisations”).

(4)¹⁴ The county municipality in question shall inform the HB of creating the Committee for the County Repository of Values and of assigning the same to fulfill the tasks referred to in Paragraph (4) within 30 days of the creation or appointment thereof.

5. Repository of values of Hungarians abroad

Section 5.¹⁵ (1) An organisation (or organisations) of Hungarians abroad participating in MÁÉRT may set up a nation segment repository of values of Hungarians abroad in relation to their respective countries. For each nation segment, the HB may only take into account the operation of one nation segment repository of values of Hungarians abroad.

(2) An organisation (or organisations) of Hungarians abroad participating in MÁÉRT may establish a Committee for the Nation Segment Repository of Values of Hungarians Abroad in relation to their respective countries which may organise the identification of national values located beyond the borders, decide on the inclusion of national values in the nation segment repository of values of Hungarians abroad, create a nation segment repository of values of Hungarians abroad and send the same to the HB for registration.

(3) Organisation participating in MÁÉRT shall inform the HB of establishing a Committee for Nation Segment Repository of Values of Hungarians Abroad.

(4) If no Committee for the Nation Segment Repository of Values of Hungarians Abroad has been set up in any of the nation segments, the HB may function as such.

Section 5/A.¹⁶ (1) A local municipality or legal entity (hereinafter: “organisation of Hungarians abroad”) supported by an organisation of Hungarians abroad participating in MÁÉRT may set up a local or regional repository of values of Hungarians abroad in relation to its own respective country. For each settlement and for each region, the HB may only take into account the operation of one local repository of values and one regional repository of values, respectively.

(2) An organisation of Hungarians abroad may establish Committees for Local and Regional Repositories of Values, respectively, which can identify and manage national values located in a given settlement or region and send data thereof to the HB or the relevant Committee for the Nation Segment Repository of Values Hungarians Abroad for registration.

(3) The relevant organisation of Hungarians may inform the HB and geographically competent Nation Segment Repository of Values of Hungarians Abroad of establishing a
